Note.

The planner for this event was unable to be present on the day, due to an important engagement with the band. However he found time on the Friday to place the controls before dashing off to final rehearsal. We should all be grateful that there are such dedicated people around who ensure that "the show still goes on".

The league placings are not available due to holidays and so the league tables will be published in Quonicle on 14th April.

Next event

The 6th and Final QOFL of the present series is at Staple Hill Near Taunton GR ST 235165 on 11 th May 2002.
